

Secured Numerous Judgments on Award in Personal Injury Case for Municipal Transportation Agency

Cecilia, following 10 arbitration hearings, secured judgments on the award in favor of a municipal transportation company arguing the carrier was not liable for the personal injury damages each individual plaintiff claimed. After listening to the evidence and testimony, the arbitrators found in favor of the transportation agency. A judgment on the award was entered and the case dismissed with prejudice.

PROFESSIONALS

Cecilia D. Villalvazo
Associate

RELATED SERVICES

General Liability
Transportation & Logistics