

Successful Audit Defense Against State Department of Revenue

Amundsen Davis successfully represented a small business owner in an audit case against the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, challenging the department's value assessment of the client's food and beverage sales. Additionally, the firm successfully contested the department's assessment of flow-through income against the owner's individual tax liability.

PROFESSIONALS

Gini L. Hendrickson
Senior Counsel

RELATED SERVICES

Tax