

Successful Dismissal of Medical Scheduling Company in High-Stakes Case

Teri secured the dismissal of a medical scheduling company before trial, with no payment required. The company was accused of delaying an MRI appointment for a plaintiff who later became paralyzed. Through effective legal arguments, Teri demonstrated that the company was not at fault, leading to a successful dismissal of the case.

PROFESSIONALS

Terese A. Drew
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

General Liability
Health Care
Litigation