

Successfully Defended an Automotive Dealership Facing a Slip and Fall Allegation

Anthony successfully defended a local automotive dealership facing a slip and fall allegation after the plaintiff claimed that he slipped in the dealership service bay. Anthony second chaired this jury trial and cross-examined a witness on the stand who revealed a critical fact that contradicted the plaintiff's injury claims. The plaintiff's initial request for $250,000 in damages was denied after the jury returned a full defense verdict.
