

Successfully Defended National Insurer Against $10.5 Million Claim

Phil represented a national insurance carrier during pleadings, discovery, and trial, securing a $0 jury verdict on a homeowner's $10.5 million claim. This outcome was achieved by proving by clear and convincing evidence that the fire to the homeowner's 11,000 square-foot residence was intentionally caused or intentionally procured (i.e., arson), resulting in a complete defense verdict and no liability for the insurer.
