

Successfully Moved for a Dismissal of an Intentional Fraud Claim Against the President of a Corporation

We successfully moved for dismissal in a federal trademark complaint, after the defendant brought third-party claims against the president of a corporation both in his individual and corporate capacity with one claim alleging intentional fraud. We successfully argued that the claim did not state a cause of action based on the heightened requirements in pleading fraud claims.

PROFESSIONALS

Matthew R. McClean
Partner

Jessica L. Puetz
Associate

RELATED SERVICES

Business Litigation