

Successfully Represented a Concrete Manufacturer against Laborers' Organizing Petition

Amundsen Davis successfully represented a concrete manufacturer against laborers' organizing petition of the company's "working foremen" upon demonstrating at the NLRB that the workers at issue met "supervisory" status under the NLRA; and, therefore, are exempt from being represented by a union.

PROFESSIONALS

Jeffrey A. Risch
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Labor & Employment
Manufacturing & Food Processing
Traditional Labor & Union Relations