

Successfully Represented a Condominium Association Against a Commercial Tenant at Trial

Litigation involved breach of the condo association's operating agreement by the commercial tenant, who failed to pay common area maintenance fees and assessments. Constantine obtained a successful judgment at trial, which included his client's court costs and attorney's fees.

PROFESSIONALS

Constantine Gavrilos
Associate

RELATED SERVICES

Homeowner Associations

Real Estate, Zoning & Public
Finance