

Successfully Represented a Preferred Provider Network for Health Care Services in an Arbitration

Matt McClean assisted in the representation of a preferred provider network for health care services in an arbitration brought by an emergency medical physician group over contractual obligations relating to repricing procedures. The result was a finding of no breach of contract.

PROFESSIONALS

Matthew R. McClean
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Business Litigation