

Successfully Represented an Electric Utility Company in Litigation Arising Out of Easement Maintenance Work

Sherry represented an electric utility company in various Wisconsin state court litigation matters filed by land-owners arising out of easement maintenance work. She successfully resolved most matters through direct negotiation with landowners, landowners' counsel and through mediation. She successfully defended the utility company's easement rights through trial, leading to an award of nominal damages for the value of removed trees.

PROFESSIONALS

Sherry D. Coley
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Real Estate, Zoning & Public
Finance