

Successfully Settled Case Against Hotel Employee

Successfully settled matter involving allegations made by the mother of an autistic young adult claiming that her son was lured into an empty hotel room by a hotel employee. The claim was that the hotel employee should not have had access to room keys. The allegations were found to be largely false, but settlement resulted for minor costs of defense.

PROFESSIONALS

Margaret Firnstein Gebhardt
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Retail