

Successfully Settled Matter Involving Allegations of a Minor Being Sexually Groomed and Assaulted

Successfully settled matter involving allegations of a minor being sexually groomed and assaulted by a running trainer employed by an international fitness center chain. Allegations revolved around failure to conduct a background check on the trainer who had a sexual assault conviction in another state 22 years prior to the alleged occurrences.

RELATED SERVICES

General Liability