

Successfully Settled Matter Involving Claim of Sexual Assault Against Therapist

Successfully settled matter involving claim of sex assault on a patient by therapist. The allegations centered on the defendant's failure to have a policy in place prohibiting therapists from being alone with patients. Evidence revealed the relationship was consensual, but settlement resulted for minor cost of defense before suit was filed.

PROFESSIONALS

Margaret Firnstein Gebhardt
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

General Liability