

Won Summary Judgment Motion for Commercial Landlord Against Defamation Claims by a Former Tenant

A commercial tenant accused a landlord of defamation for his statements to potential buyers of the tenant's business. The court granted our Motion for Summary Judgment holding that following their depositions, the plaintiffs had failed to present evidence to support defamation per se.

PROFESSIONALS

Max Goodman
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Real Estate, Zoning & Public
Finance

Reputation & Crisis
Management