

Gary Zhao Appointed to the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association's Board of Governors

National Asian Pacific American Bar Association
November 5, 2016

Gary Zhao was sworn into the National Asian Pacific Bar Association's (NAPABA) Board of Governors during the NAPABA Convention in San Diego. Gary is currently one of four members on the Board of Governors.

NAPABA is the national association of Asian Pacific American attorneys, judges, law professors and law students composed of about 50,000 attorneys and almost 75 state and local Asian Pacific American bar associations. The organization advocates for amplified diversity of the federal and state judiciaries, equal opportunity in the workplace, and professional development for minorities in the legal profession.
