

Heather Bub Named Rising Star at the 18th Annual Women's Justice Awards

Missouri Lawyers Media

April 14, 2016

Heather Bub, a partner in our St. Louis office, was honored by Missouri Lawyers Media as a Rising Star during the 18th Annual Women's Justice Awards in St. Louis.

This honor is awarded to female lawyers 40 years old and younger or within the first 10 years of practice who have already made a difference in the justice system or the profession and who appear on a path toward even greater accomplishment.

Heather is president of the Women's Bar Association of Greater St. Louis and is active in the Missouri Bar Association. To learn more about Heather and her accomplishments to date, please visit the awards website.
