

Members of Amundsen Davis's St. Louis Office Participate in the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention Walk

September 27, 2020

On September 27th Dan Peters led a team around Queeny Park for a 4.5 mile walk in support of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP). About 30 people joined Dan's team for the walk, including Chris Miller, and others donated. In total Dan's team raised $1,320 for suicide prevention and awareness.

The mission of the AFSP community walk is to save lives and bring hope to those who have been affected by suicide. to learn more about the AFSP, visit the AFSP website.
