

Amundsen Davis Promotes Three to Partner

February 24, 2020

On February 24, 2020, Amundsen Davis promoted three attorneys to partner, including Ronald Balfour, Anne Fishbeck, and Kelly Haab-Tallitsch.

Ronald Balfour, Class Action; Commercial Litigation; Data Privacy – Chicago, IL

Ron defends putative class claims involving a wide range of substantive issues, from alleged consumer fraud to breach of contract, to housing and disability discrimination. In addition, Ron helps to resolve business disputes arising out of business relationships, including insurer-agent, corporation-stockholder, and competitor disputes.

Anne Fishbeck, Commercial Transportation & Logistics – Chicago, IL

Anne defends clients in contract disputes, personal injury, regulatory compliance, preservation of evidence and risk avoidance in catastrophic loss scenarios.

Kelly Haab-Tallitsch, Labor & Employment – St. Charles, IL

Kelly counsels clients on employee benefit and executive compensation matters, helping employers understand their obligations under the Affordable Care Act, ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code. She advises employers on qualified and non-qualified retirement plans, employee stock ownership plans (ESOPs), health and welfare plans, wellness programs and severance plans.
