

Amundsen Davis Welcomes Constantine Gavrilos to Construction Practice Group

December 13, 2021

We are pleased to welcome Constantine Gavrilos to our Construction Practice Group in our Chicago office.

As a member of our Construction Practice Group, Constantine represents contractors, sub-contractors, and property management companies, many of which are located in the heart of the Chicago Loop. He assists with breach of contract claims, municipal building code violations, and construction contract formation. Constantine's diverse experience spanning construction defects, real estate disputes and commercial contract negotiations will prove to be invaluable to our clients.
