

Amundsen Davis Welcomes Jorie R. Johnson

Firm News

August 11, 2025

Our firm is excited to announce that Jorie R. Johnson has joined our already strong Health Care Service Group in our Chicago office.

Jorie's practice focuses primarily on the defense of hospitals, nursing facilities, long-term care facilities, and medical practitioners in medical malpractice, wrongful death claims, and denial-of-care claims. She also represents hospitals, religious institutions, and nonprofit organizations facing complex and sensitive sexual abuse claims. We welcome Jori's proactive approach and her experience across both the public and private sectors!
