

Amundsen Davis Welcomes Sarah N. Castle to Transportation Team

Firm News
January 26, 2026

We are happy to announce that Sarah N. Castle has joined our Transportation & Logistics Service Group in our Chicago office.

Sarah represents transportation companies in legal matters including personal injury, wrongful death, environmental compliance, toxic tort, employment discrimination, workers' compensation, and contract negotiation. Her experience as in-house counsel for an environmental waste management company gives her clear insight into the needs and realities of today's transportation companies. She makes a strong addition to our already robust transportation team!
