

Amundsen Davis's Real Estate Team and Attorney Joseph Tierney Recognized by Chambers USA for 2023

Firm News
June 1, 2023

Joe Tierney has been recognized by Chambers USA in the area of Real Estate Law. Joe is among an elite group of attorneys selected as 'Leaders in their Field' and was featured in the Chambers USA Legal Guide 2023 edition.

Joe has experience in complex sales and acquisitions of companies, real estate transactions and financings, and sophisticated tax planning. He routinely works with clients in structuring their investment entities and offerings as well as developing or acquiring real estate and business assets. He helps clients develop and finance numerous high profile retail, industrial and multi-family developments in Wisconsin and across the country including zoning and other entitlement issues.

Additionally, Amundsen Davis's Real Estate Service Group was recognized for its experience in all aspects of commercial real estate and lending, in particular leasing and construction contracts and the tax elements of real estate transactions. Our Real Estate Service Group represents a wide array of national, regional and local clients and works from a variety of perspectives. From developers, owners, investors, and tenants to architects, contractors, and municipalities, we serve the gamut of commercial real estate needs. Sometimes real estate is the primary business of the client; other times, the client's only interest in real estate is to have a place to operate their main business—be it a factory, office, or retail store. As a full service firm, we innovatively and efficiently address all the affiliated issues such as tax, ownership entities, governmental approvals and environmental matters. Together, we offer one of the most robust commercial real estate practices in Wisconsin and have assisted related businesses in 49 states.

Chambers USA ranks the leading firms and lawyers through an extensive research and interview process. Their annual guide to U.S. law firms is widely regarded by leading companies throughout the U.S. and worldwide.
