

Attorney Alice Lin Joins Amundsen Davis's Chicago Office

Firm News
July 10, 2023

We are excited to announce that attorney Alice Lin has joined our firm as a partner in our Chicago office.

Alice's practice focuses on a broad range of federal and international tax issues. She advises publicly traded and private companies on business formations, initial public offerings, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, loan agreements, and public and private debt/equity offerings. Her clients include multinational corporations, financial institutions, real estate investment trusts (REITs), private equity funds, start-ups, and family businesses, among others. Alice offers an understanding of the nuances of the tax law to analyze risk and assist with tax-efficient structuring. She also supports clients in their goals of finding investors suitable to invest in their structure and in complying with the tax and legal requirements of their deals.

PROFESSIONALS

Alice A. Lin
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Corporate & Securities
Mergers & Acquisitions
Tax