

Attorney Gaius G. Webb Joins Indianapolis Office

Firm News
June 3, 2024

We are happy to announce that Gaius G. Webb has joined our Health Care Service Group in our Indianapolis office.

Guy defends physicians, nurses and hospitals in medical malpractice claims. He sees his clients through Indiana's medical review panel process in state court. Guy often assists clients in responding to patient inquiries, responding to requests for medical records and preparing his clients' employees for deposition or testimony. He also helps his clients comply with HIPAA when responding to requests for protected health information. He is a great addition to our Health Care Service Group.
