

Attorney Jeff Oberlies Joins Amundsen Davis's Indianapolis Office

Firm News
December 1, 2022

Attorney Jeff Oberlies recently joined our General Liability Service Group in the firm's Indianapolis office. Jeff is a partner and a seasoned litigator with extensive trial experience. He provides insurance clients with a good faith basis for investigating and making coverage decisions, primarily first party arson and fraud claims. In third party matters, he handles traditional negligence issues, as well as slip and fall, and premises liability matters. Prior to private practice, Jeff spent five years as a Lake County and Marion County Deputy Prosecutor handling major felonies and trying more than 100 jury and bench trials.
