

Chambers USA Recognizes Two Amundsen Davis Service Groups and Two Attorneys for 2024

Firm News
June 2024

Joe Tierney and Brian Randall have been recognized in the Chambers USA Legal Guide 2024 edition in the area of Real Estate Law. Joe is recommended for his transactional real estate practice, which sees him regularly advise clients on acquisitions, financing and tax matters. Brian is noted for his expertise in zoning and land use and acts on behalf of developers and property owners.

Additionally Amundsen Davis's Real Estate Service Group and Intellectual Property Service Group were both recognized for their respective work and experience. Our Real Estate Service Group represents a wide array of national, regional and local clients and works from a variety of perspectives. From developers, owners, investors, and tenants to architects, contractors, and municipalities, we serve the gamut of commercial real estate needs. Our Intellectual Property Service Group represents clients on all aspects of IP including patents, trademarks, copyrights, and trade secrets. Our IP attorneys are committed to helping our clients throughout the IP process from application for protection to enforcement of rights to defense of infringement claims.

Chambers USA ranks the leading firms and lawyers through an extensive research and interview process. Their annual guide to U.S. law firms is widely regarded by leading companies throughout the U.S. and worldwide.

Congratulations to Joe, Brian, our Real Estate group, and our Intellectual Property group on the recognitions!

PROFESSIONALS

Brian C. Randall
Partner

Joseph E. Tierney IV
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Intellectual Property

Real Estate, Zoning & Public
Finance