

Gregory “Greg” Frezados Joins Trusts, Estates & Succession Planning Service Group

Firm News

January 12, 2026

We are pleased to welcome Gregory “Greg” Frezados to the firm as a partner in the Trusts, Estates & Succession Planning Service Group in Chicago.

Greg has more than 30 years of experience advising individuals and families throughout Illinois. He concentrates his practice on estate planning, trust formation, family business succession planning, asset protection, charitable planning, and tax-efficient wealth transfer strategies.

His experience includes developing and administering sophisticated multigenerational succession plans for high-net-worth business owners, executives, philanthropists, professional athletes, and multigenerational family enterprises. His approach emphasizes wealth preservation, asset protection, and tax minimization. He also has extensive experience guiding clients through Illinois probate and trust administration.

Prior to entering private legal practice, Greg worked as a trust administrator for large, multigenerational trusts and as a wealth manager with a global investment management firm. He earned his J.D. at Tulane University School of Law and his B.A. at Middlebury College.

We are excited to have Greg join the firm!
