Congratulations to Jeff Risch and Heather Bailey who are among 40 honorees on Crain's Notable Leaders in Employment & Labor Law for 2023. The nominees handle legal matters for both management and employees. Their work includes labor-union negotiations; noncompetes; severance agreements for high-ranking employees; unfair and discriminatory labor practices; whistleblower situations; workplace policies; retirement and pension plans; wage-and-hour violations; and countless other legal matters that crop up in the workplace.

Congrats Jeff and Heather! It's well deserved!

You can view the full list of nominees on the Crain's Chicago Business website.
