

Jessica Keyes Joins Amundsen Davis as Senior Counsel

Firm News
May 5, 2025

We are proud to announce that Jessica Keyes has joined our Health Care Service Group as a Senior Counsel in our Indianapolis office.

Jessica is a former attorney and general counsel for a state health and human services agency. Now, as senior counsel in our Health Care Service Group, Jessica represents a variety of health care clients facing issues such as reimbursement, eligibility, enrollment, and provision of services. She focuses her practice on providing high-level legal counsel on complex health care issues across the public and private sectors. She is an invaluable asset to our firm.
