Crain's Chicago Business

February 20, 2024

Congratulations to Julie Proscia who has been named by Crain's Chicago Business a Notable Woman in Law for 2024! There are 141 attorneys who make up the 2024 class of Notable Women in Law and they practice across a wide range of specialties, counseling clients from small businesses to giant multinationals, from families to corporate boards.

Nominees were only considered for this list if they live and work in the Chicago area, serve in a senior role at a law firm with at least 10 professional staff and have practiced for a minimum of five years. All honorees' work with clients has had a measurable impact. They have also demonstrated leadership in professional organizations, served as a role model or mentor to other attorneys and have promoted inclusive practices in the workplace. Congratulations, Julie!
