

Partner Stephanie Cantrell Joins Labor & Employment Team

Firm News

June 23, 2025

We are pleased to announce that attorney Stephanie Cantrell has joined our Labor, Employment & Immigration Service Group as a partner in our Chicago office.

Stephanie draws on her background as corporate counsel to provide tactical and effective advice to employers on matters including policies and procedures, training, and separation and employment agreements. She is an accomplished litigator, dedicated to skillfully defending her clients against harassment and discrimination claims in federal and state courts. In addition to her employment experience, Stephanie also handles cases for her clients related to housing discrimination and directors' and officers' liability litigation.

Stephanie received her B.S. from University of Wisconsin and her J.D. from Chicago-Kent College of Law.
