

Tanya Petermann Returns to Amundsen Davis as Chief Administrative Officer

Firm News
April 8, 2024

We are thrilled to welcome back Tanya Petermann as the firm's Chief Administrative Officer. Tanya is an attorney by trade and has practiced in both the law firm and in-house general counsel setting.

As Chief Administrative Officer, Tanya will work closely with firm leadership on day-to-day operations, as well as long term strategic planning. She will draw on her legal background and her experience managing business operations as she oversees the firm's administrative teams.

Our Managing Partner, Lew Bricker, said "We are thrilled to welcome Tanya back to our ever growing and evolving firm in this role. She will play an important part in making sure Amundsen Davis is poised for the future."
