Congratulations to Tiffany Woelfel on being named in the inaugural 40 Under 40 Awards by Insight Publications. To be recognized, the winners need to have significant accomplishments both at work and in the community, and live in the New North Region in Wisconsin. Tiffany was recognized at a special awards program last night, along with the other honorees.

Tiffany focuses her practice on both state and federal civil litigation, including matters arising in the fields of business, finance, environmental, intellectual property, employment, and civil rights law. She assists clients with everything from contract disputes and employee issues, to trade secrets and intellectual property matters.

Outside the office, Tiffany is drawn to organizations focused on helping women, families and young professionals. She volunteers with the Emerging Leaders Committee of the United Way of the Fox Cities, the Development Committee of the Women's Fund of the Fox Valley Region, and the Green & Gold Gala Committee for Family Services of Northeast Wisconsin. She's also active in the legal profession and serves as the President-Elect for the Wisconsin State Bar – Young Lawyers Division and as a Board Member the Newsletter Co-Chair for the Eastern District of Wisconsin Bar Association. She has also been recognized as an Associate Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America, an invitation-only trial lawyer honor society whose membership is limited to 3,500 fellows.
