The Chicago Daily Law Bulletin recently interviewed Alan Farkas after a small plane made an emergency landing on Lake Shore Drive in Chicago on July 27. After the plane began to lose power on its flight from Oshkosh, Wisconsin, the pilot determined he was unable to make it to Midway Airport and landed the plane safely on Lake Shore Drive. Farkas credited the pilot for the fact that no one was harmed saying, "Any other decision at that moment wouldn't have ended so well."
