Ryan Jacobson was recently quoted in a Chicago Daily Law Bulletin article titled, "Appeal panel denies lawyer's defamation suit." The article discusses the lost bid to revive a defamation lawsuit, in which McStephen Solomon accused Michael Hastings of making defamatory statements about him during a state senate campaign. "Despite more than two and half years of litigation before appeal, Solomon took no depositions or produced any admissible document, testimony or affidavit to show that the Hastings campaign did anything unlawful," Ryan said.
