October 26, 2015

Missouri Lawyers Weekly features Heather Bub in an article on license activation. In the article, Heather explains the difficulty she had when trying to reactivate her Missouri law license and steps she took in order to reconcile this issue for other individuals looking to reactivate their licenses. A new rule which will make it much simpler to reactivate a law license was approved last month by the Missouri Supreme Court will officially go into effect on January 1.
