December 31, 2024

FXLeaders published an article discussing why bitcoin prices fell near the end of 2024 and predictions for 2025. In the article, Joe Carlasare was asked about his bitcoin price predictions and the long-term outlook. "The market outperformed forecasts in 2024, but signals of weariness indicated the need for consolidation. Looking ahead to 2025, I'm hopeful but as markets often do, I expect the road to deviate from consensus to change."
