An interview with Joseph Heino was featured in the Summer 2025 issue of EDM Today magazine.

In the article, "PERA 2025: New Legislation Could Reshape EDM Shop Patent Rights on Tooling and Fixturing," Joseph provides answers to questions about the Patent Eligibility Restoration Act (PERA). He states, "...keeping an eye on the status of this legislation will be important. Potential applicants need to know that the process as it exists today, can work well in many situations but applications are complex and have associated fees."
