

Law Firms Weigh in on Privacy Rules for Biometrics for Online Work and School - BiometricUpdate.com Quotes Molly Arranz

Media Mention

BiometricUpdate.com

April 28, 2020

The article "Law Firms Weigh in on Privacy Rules for Biometrics for Online Work and School, Temperature Screening," published by the BiometricUpdate.com, is a compilation of ongoing discussions in the data privacy community regarding the potential risks that schools and businesses could face as they adjust their workforce to online.

Kicking off the discussion, BiometricUpdate.com references Molly's article about the accusations made against Google, citing the violation of the Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act (BIPA) and the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) to further highlight the risks.

The full article can be read on Biometricupdate.com.

PROFESSIONALS

Molly A. Arranz
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Cybersecurity & Data Privacy
Data Privacy in the Workplace