lohud. interviewed Luke Fedlam about the recruitment of basketball star Boogie Fland. Luke stated that “There are responsibilities that come along with all of the NIL opportunities that present themselves. Those responsibilities include understanding a contract before you sign it, understanding that taxes need to be paid. ... The schools that understand the responsibilities are leaning into really helping to equip and empower their student-athletes and bringing in experts to help make sure they understand how to effectively navigate this NIL environment.”
