March 30, 2023

In March, 2023, Olayimika Oyebanji of Hackernoon interviewed Ngosong Fonkem regarding crypto regulation. In the interview Ngosong is asked about the SEC weighing down on the crypto industry. Ngosong also weighs in on crypto regulation being a public facade and where he see the crypto market heading.

The interview closes with Ngosong offering advice for those who look up to him, "if they have the opportunity to develop the necessary skill sets, they should not hesitate to do so, even if that opportunity is not financially rewarding in the short run. Once they have the skills and the opportunity the money will come."
