Ryan Jacobson was recently quoted in The News-Gazette in an article titled, "Oh, baby: Too much sugar can be toxic." The article discusses a defamation case where Ryan obtained $7.6 million for his client. The plaintiff in the case, a Chicago Executive who filed using a pseudonym, retained Ryan to seek recourse against a former girlfriend who terrorized him on the Internet as retaliation for ending their relationship. In the article Ryan states of the defendant, "I couldn't even list everything she did in the (38-page lawsuit complaint)."
