May 2021

We are excited to share the updated Construction Compendium of Law released by USLAW.

The Construction Compendium is a convenient, state-by-state, reference guide discussing many of the most common legal questions and issues in the construction industry.

Written by USLAW member attorneys, including members of our Construction Practice Group for both Illinois and Indiana, the compendium gives easy access to current state and statutory laws using local knowledge and expertise.

To view the full list of USLAW compendia visit the USLAW website.
