

COVID-19 and University Closures - What Institutions Can Expect as Students File Class Actions Against Them

The Defense Research Institution's Commercial Litigation Committee Newsletter
June 2, 2020

In the article titled "COVID-19 and University Closures - What Institutions Can Expect as Students File Class Actions Against Them," published in the Defense Research Institute's Commercial Litigation Committee Newsletter 'The Business Suit', Eric Samore, Ronald Balfour, and Michael Chang discuss the class actions filed against universities by students who feel "short-changed" due to the COVID-19 and the transition to remote learning.

PROFESSIONALS

Ronald Balfour
Partner

Michael M. Chang
Senior Counsel

Eric L. Samore
Special Counsel

RELATED SERVICES

Class Action