

Changes to Unclaimed Property Policies and Procedures Necessitated by adoption of the RUPA

Hoosier Banker Magazine
July/ August 2021

On April 29, 2021 the Governor of Indiana adopted a revised Unclaimed Property Act doing away with the previous Act in its entirety. In Larry Tomlin's article, "Changes to Unclaimed Property Policies and Procedures Necessitated by adoption of the RUPA," published in the July/ August 2021 edition of Hoosier Bank Magazine, he breaks down the Revised Unclaimed Property Act, how it differs from the previous Act and provides financial institutions with tips for new policies and procedures regarding unclaimed property.

The article can be read in full in the July/ August 2021 issue of Hoosier Banker Magazine digital.
