

Tip Payment Landscape Sows Confusion For Hospitality Cos.

Law360

July 7, 2021

On June 21, 2021, the U.S. Department of Labor proposed changing the way that employers utilize tip credit. Meaning, employers may no longer be able to pay tipped employees lower than the minimum wage and receive tip credit for "side work".

Heather Bailey and Sara Zorich's article recently published by Law360 breaks down the proposed rulemaking and gives employers good practice tips to start reviewing and put into place, specifically regarding tip pools.

You can read the full article, "Tip Payment Landscape Sows Confusion For Hospitality Cos.," on Law360's website.

PROFESSIONALS

Heather A. Bailey
Partner

Sara Zorich
Partner

RELATED SERVICES

Employee Benefits, Executive
Compensation & Tax

Employment Advice &
Counsel

Labor, Employment &
Immigration

Wage & Hour