

Four Factors and the Truth? Though Johnson v. NCAA Result Pleases Crowd, Test Fails to Strike a Chord With Realignment, NIL Realities

Publication

Conduct Detrimental — The Sports Law Intersection

February 2, 2025

Olivia LaPorta wrote an article for the Conduct Detrimental — The Sports Law Intersection focusing on the "economic realities" evaluation that is composed of four factors to determine the potential employment status of college athletes. The article concludes stating that amateurism in college sports is on its way out and that the NCAA is not above the law.

You can read Olivia's full article on the Conduct Detrimental — The Sports Law Intersection website.

PROFESSIONALS

Olivia LaPorta
Associate