IOM — Insights of Manufacturing

July 14, 2023

Wisconsin manufacturers should follow U.S. foreign policy closely. In Ngosong Fonkem's article, "The Impact of Geopolitics on Aluminum Prices" he discusses why it is important for Wisconsin manufacturers to follow foreign policy closely, the actions the U.S. government has taken on imports and the ongoing logistical challenge. Ngosong urges Wisconsin importers of aluminum to carefully review the recent proclamations and new requirements to ensure they are aware of how they apply to their import process.
