Section of Litigation

This year we are excited to celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the Insurance Coverage Litigation Committee (ICLC) meeting in Tucson, Arizona. What makes this meeting – and our Committee – unique is the opportunity to hear both the policyholder and insurer-side viewpoints on a range of important topics to insurance coverage litigators. This year will be no different. This 30th Anniversary meeting offers a great blend of the timely, useful and cutting edge programs that will address topics such as the controversial Restatement of the Law: Liability Insurance; coverage issues arising from 2017's hurricanes and wildfires; technology-driven disruptors on the horizon that will change insurance as we know it today; and many others. Reflecting on the ICLC at 30, we will also hear from some of the "deans" of the insurance coverage bar on the development of insurance coverage litigation as a practice area and what the future holds. All of this in an amazing desert setting with plentiful networking opportunities, as well as hiking, golf, tennis, spa, dancing, and other activities. We look forward to seeing you in Tucson!

Or are they? This session will explore whether London is at risk of losing its grip as the insurance arbitration capital of the world. Panelists: Wileen Chick, Aon Risk Solutions, New York, NY, Jeffrey Gruder QC, Essex Court Chambers, London, England, Allan B. Moore, Covington & Burling LLP, Washington, D.C.

CLE programming

Thursday (Continued)

12:00 pm - 1:00 pm	Breakout: When Cats Attack! — Update on Coverage and Claims in the Wake of 2017's Record Breaking Catastrophic Loss Events 2017 was record breaking for cat losses, including the strongest hurricane month ever recorded, Mexico's strongest earthquake in a century, extreme wildfires, and the most deadly shooting in U.S. history. We will explore related insurance issues from a panel with expertise in coverage, risk management, brokerage, claims, and forensic accounting. Panelists: Karen Cusato, Cusato Consulting LLC, Westport, CT, Joseph Jean, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, New York, NY, Gregory D. Miller, Rivkin Radler LLP, Hackensack, NJ, Henry Wright, BB&T Insurance Services, Inc., Charlotte, NC
1:15 pm - 2:25 pm	Plenary: Cyber Policies: The Next Wave Cyber policy coverage is being litigated, raising the issue of whether traditional bad faith principles will or should apply. How should insurers investigate claims? Do bad faith parameters change, as there is little guidance on interpreting cyber policy language? Will defenses such as the genuine dispute doctrine apply? This program will explore all of the above. Panelists: Karin S. Aldama, Perkins Coie LLP, Phoenix, AZ, Rina Carmel, Anderson McPharlin & Connors LLP, Los Angeles, CA, Jamie R. Carsey, Markel Corporation, Houston, TX, Tred R. Eyerly, Damon Key Leong Kupchak Hastert, Honolulu, HI, Demetrius E. Rush, Zurich North American Insurance Company, Schaumburg, IL
2:35 pm - 3:45 pm	Plenary: Restatement of the Law, Liability Insurance: Is the Sky Falling? Eight years in the making, the Restatement of the Law, Liability Insurance generated controversy when presented for approval by the American Law Institute in May 2017. Was this light — or simply heat? Hear — and join — the debate on the Restatement's potential impact on for the law on insurance coverage and bad faith. Panelists: Vanita M. Banks, Allstate Insurance Company, Northbrook, IL, Thomas A. Chaseman, AIG Property Casualty, New York, NY, David B. Goodwin, Covington & Burling LLP, San Francisco, CA, Lorelie S. Masters, Hunton & Williams LLP, Washington, D.C., Jeffrey W. Stempel, University of Nevada Las Vegas, Las Vegas, NV
4:00 pm - 5:00 pm	Breakout: What Did 2017 Teach Us? Notorious and obscure recent developments in the world of coverage law. This fun game-show format includes the audience in discussion with policyholder, carrier, defense, and neutral perspectives with practical solutions to address these new realities. Panelists: Rebecca C. Appelbaum, Adams and Reese LLP, Tampa, FL, Tom Brown, National Claim Services Inc., Atlanta, GA, Rachel Ehrlich, Judicate West, San Francisco, CA, Christine A. Gudaitis, Ver Ploeg & Lumpkin PA, Miami, FL
4:00 pm - 5:00 pm	Breakout: Mad Skillz: Professional Services Coverage & Exclusions in the High-Tech Era Work and products are covered under general liability/products policies. Professional services are covered under professional liability policies. Everyone agrees on the basics, but how these concepts apply in the world of digital solutions, skilled work, technology-assisted processes, and product support is a different story. This panel will include a discussion of latest cases. Panelists: Caroline Hurtado Ford, Haynes & Boone LLP, Costa Mesa, CA, Amanda Graham, Duane Morris LLP, San Francisco, CA, Jeff Kiburtz, Covington & Burling LLP, Los Angeles, CA, Agelo L. Breakout: It's Too Late Baby, Now It's Too Late: New Developments with the Notice/Prejudice Rule in Late Notice Cases in Both Claims-Made and Occurrence Policies

While courts have seemingly wrestled with late notice provisions for decades, recent decisions from around the country raise new questions about their scope. This panel will discuss the current status of case law on notice provisions. The panel will focus on recent cases shifting the rules governing late-notice provisions, including decisions addressing whether the rule requiring insurers to be prejudiced by the alleged late notice applies to certain claims-made policies. The panel will also explore cases addressing whether notice provided to brokers is binding upon an insurer.

Saturday (Continued)

9:20 am – 10:20 am	Breakout: A Common Interest in Cooperation: How to Protect Privilege and Policy Benefits When Reporting to Liability Insurers Insureds often face the Hobson's choice of responding to insurer reporting requests, potentially waiving privilege, or refusing, potentially breaching a duty to cooperate. We'll address what the duty actually requires; recent law on the common interest doctrine, including Restatement and ABA resolutions; and opposing claimant subpoenas to insurers seeking insurer-insured communications. Panelists: Joseph G. Harraka, Jr., Becker LLC Livingston, NJ, Meghan C. Moore, Ver Ploeg & Lumpkin PA, Miami, FL, Seth Row, Miller Nash Graham & Dunn LLP, Portland, OR, Gary P. Seligman, Wiley Rein LLP, Washington, D.C.
10:35 am – 11:35 am	Breakout: "Next Asbestos" Will Be . . . Asbestos: Why the Insurance Industry's Biggest Problem Won't Go Away Anytime Soon Asbestos is still kicking. Over 4,600 new asbestos cases were filed in 2016, more than half were mesothelioma claims. This panel will review the current landscape of asbestos coverage litigation and settlement, including an update on claims and technology, "hot" coverage issues, and the impact of consolidation of insurer liabilities. Panelists: Edward H. Blakemore, Rockwell, Automation Inc., Mayfield Heights, OH, Elizabeth A. Hanke, KCIC, Washington, D.C., David E. Schoenfeld, Shook Hardy & Bacon LLP, Chicago, IL, Jodi Spencer Johnson, Ice Miller LLP, Cleveland, OH
10:35 am – 11:35 am	Breakout: "Occurrences" and "Wrongful Acts": One Plus One Does Not Always Equal Two The number of "occurrences" (under a CGL policy) or "wrongful acts" (under various claims-made policies) can mean the difference between a big insurance payout or no payout at all. This panel will provide an update on developments in the case law dealing with the number of occurrences and wrongful acts. Panelists: Margo Brownell, Maslon LLP, Minneapolis, MN, Lonna J. Carter, RiverStone Claims Management, Manchester, NH, Louis A. Chiafullo, McCarter & English LLP, Newark, NJ, Rikke Dierssen-Morice, Faegre Baker Daniels LLP, Indianapolis, IN, Robin Ann Williams, Bassford Remele, Minneapolis, MN
10:35 am – 11:35 am	Breakout: Practical Considerations and Common Issues Arising in Claims Resolution A discussion of the law and practical considerations for choice of counsel disputes, consent to settle or hammer clauses, policy interpretation, allocation of damages and other issues that arise, and tips for avoiding conflict and building consensus. Panelists: Robert Carlton, Haynes & Boone LLP Houston, TX, Michelle M. Carter, Hays Companies, Minneapolis, MN, Kathryn Lindley, OneBeacon Insurance Group, Minneapolis, MN, Beth Jenson Prouty, Arthur Chapman Kettering Smetak & Pikala PA, Minneapolis, MN
10:35 am – 11:35 am	Breakout: Misconceptions Surrounding Follow-Form Excess Coverage Insureds, brokers, and excess underwriters often mistakenly believe that an excess follow-form policy automatically follows all terms of the underlying policy. Where excess follow-form coverage forms include terms, e.g. other insurance/subrogation conditions, that supersede the underlying policy's terms, the excess policy needs to be separately endorsed to operate as intended. Panelists: Nicole C. Bikakis, Saxe Doernberger & Vita PC, Trumbull, CT, Mary Bishop, Construction Risk Partners, Branchburg, NJ, John Grimaldi, The Navigators Group Inc., New York, NY, Clarence Y. Lee, Saul Ewing Arnstein & Lehr LLP, Washington, D.C.
11:45 am – 12:55 pm	Plenary: Conflicts Among Insurers, Insureds, and Independent Counsel: Ethical Considerations This panel will discuss and debate the rights and duties of insurers and insureds in situations where insureds have the right to independent defense counsel, the ethical dilemmas that these situations create for independent defense counsel, and proposed solutions and options. Panelists: Marion B. Adler, Rachlis Duff Adler Peel & Kaplan LLC, Chicago, IL, William T. Barker, Dentons US LLP, Chicago, IL, Ann Ching, State Bar of Arizona, Phoenix, AZ, Neil B. Posner, Much Shelist PC, Chicago, IL

Friday, March 2, 2018

1:05 pm – 2:30 pm

1. It's Not All Relative: The Effect of Related Claims Requirements in Claims Made Policies	Claims-made policies contain provisions requiring the relation back of related claims to an earlier policy. This roundtable will identify when claims are related and how that can benefit policyholders or insurers in a given case. Speakers: Charles J. Fischette, Weisbrod Matteis & Copley PLLC, Washington, D.C.
2. The Revolution Is Now — Big Data in Claims — and Underwriting	Insurers are increasingly relying on data analytics in underwriting and claims handling — including fraud detection and settlement value modeling. This roundtable will explore the innovative ways in which “Big Data” is used, the risks involved, cascading effects on actuarial projections, financial reporting implications, and how states plan to regulate it. Speakers: Marilyn B. Fagelson, Murtha Cullina LLP, New Haven, CT, Peter Kochenburger, UCONN School of Law, Hartford, CT,
3. Evolving Case Law on “Professional Services”	The roundtable will focus on “professional services” provisions in both D&O policies and E&O policies, including numerous recent opinions addressing this term when used in either a grant of coverage or in an exclusion. Topics will include: attempts by insurers to expand the scope of the exclusion with respect to policyholders who are in the business of providing professional services; disputes among insurers; and issues related to severability (e.g., whether the exclusion applies to all insureds or only insured performing professional services). Speaker: Edward Brown, Wiley Rein LLP, Washington, D.C., Gregory Wright, K& L Gates, LLP, Washington, D.C.
4. Strategies for Navigating E-Discovery Issues in Insurance Coverage Litigation	This roundtable will facilitate a discussion on effective strategies for managing e-discovery in often contentious insurance coverage litigation, and how the new federal rules and current trends can be employed to maximize benefits and minimize costs. Speakers: Megan R. Brillault, Beveridge & Diamond PC, New York, NY, Dawson Horn III, AIG, New York, NY
5. Grenfell Towers and Other Mass Disasters: Who is Liable, and are the Claims Covered?	This roundtable will address the potential massive liability and resulting coverage issues stemming from the Grenfell Towers fire and other mass disasters such as the recent hurricanes, including allocation of liability, availability of coverage and coverage defenses, priority of insurance, and potential applications of case precedents regarding past mass disasters. Speakers: Catherine Cockerham, Steptoe & Johnson, Washington, D.C., Matthew G. Jeweler, Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP, Washington, D.C., Peter L. Tracey, Perkins Coie LLP, Washington, D.C.
6. Not Your Father's Tesla — How to Negotiate Cutting-Edge Policies and Leverage Technology to Improve Your Game	Policies are evolving and negotiable. During placement, negotiators must know what terms can/must change per new law. What's best in market for definitions, exclusions, conditions? Share best practices, tips, negotiating successes. Learn to leverage technology. Share tools that efficiently evaluate terms, proactively identify differences between policies and graphically share results. Speakers: Nancy Gutzler, KCIC, Washington, D.C., Julie L. Hammerman, Weisbrod Matteis & Copley PLLC, Washington, D.C.
7. Issues Relating to Coverage for Entities Other Than the “Named Insured”	This roundtable will address recent case decisions highlighting the scope and application of “additional insured” endorsements and related issues regarding who is an insured other than the named insured, focusing on questions arising from the NY Court of Appeals’ decision in Burlington Ins. Co. v. NYC Transit Authority, et al. Speakers: Nancy A. Brownstein, Davis Wright Tremaine LLP, Seattle, WA, Matthew L. Jacobs, Jenner & Block LLP, Washington, D.C., Frank Winston, Steptoe & Johnson, Washington, D.C.

8. Points of Contention: Improving Insured/Insurer Relations on Government Investigation Claims	Government investigations are costly and time-consuming for targeted businesses, particularly in heavily regulated fields like healthcare, finance, and energy. This roundtable will offer a discussion of insurance considerations related to these investigations, including sources of coverage, potential coverage issues, and best practices for insureds and insurers to work together when facing investigations. Speakers: Jan A. Larson, Jenner & Block LLP, Washington, D.C., Lindsay L. Rollins, Hancock Daniel Johnson & Nagle PC, Richmond, VA
9. Sometimes Offense Is the Best Defense: But Is It Covered?	Once a suit is filed that triggers an insurer's duty to defend, defense counsel, the insured, and the insurer must work together to defend against the suit. In many circumstances, the recommended strategy involves filing a counterclaim, or even a separate suit against the plaintiff. There are a variety of rules in different jurisdictions as to whether such offensive moves are covered as part of the insurer's duty to defend. This roundtable will explore the differing rules and the reasoning behind them, providing useful information for arguing the issue, especially in jurisdictions that have not addressed these circumstances. Speakers: Ruth S. Kochenderfer, Marsh USA Inc., Washington, D.C., John S. Vishneski III, Reed Smith LLP, Chicago, IL
10. A Claim, or Not a Claim, That Is the Question: Determining What Constitutes a "Claim" under D&O and E&O Policies	The roundtable will discuss the always important yet sometimes thorny questions of what constitutes a "claim" under D&O and E&O policies. This determination then triggers obligations to give notice, cooperate, and investigate, among others. Speakers: Matthew W. Beato, Wiley Rein LLP, Washington, D.C., Nicholas M. Insua, McCarter & English LLP, Newark, NJ
11. The Hidden Traps of Wraps	Come to this roundtable to discuss emerging and recurring issues faced by wrap sponsors and participants. Speakers: Lauren M. Case, Duane Morris LLP, San Francisco, CA, Theresa A. Guertin, Saxe Doernberger & Vita PC, Trumbull, CT
12. The Buss Stops Here?	Insurers may seek reimbursement for amounts paid for claims clearly not covered in multiple jurisdictions. Recent decisions, however, appear to have significantly eroded that ability. This roundtable discussion will address reimbursement "Buss" actions; including claims handling; risk assessment, negotiations, insured's responses, litigation strategies, and recent court decisions. Speakers: Kimberly R. Arnal, The Aguilera Law Group APLC, Los Angeles, CA, Stacy L. La Scala, JAMS, Orange, CA
13. The Products Matrix: Reinsurance in a "Material World"	The speakers will present a matrix comprised of four key species of products claims — manufacturing defects, design defects, inherently dangerous, and non-dangerous. Claim executives from major reinsurers will describe the underwriting, reinsurance claim and social implications of each claim type, including discussion of large 2016–2017 verdicts (i.e. Syngenta, McDonald's). Speakers: David A. Attisani, Choate Hall & Stewart LLP, Boston, MA, Kathryn Christ, Swiss Reinsurance America Corporation, Armonk, NY, Joy LaHuta, Renaissance Reinsurance, Hamilton, Bermuda

14. The Fate of Pro Rata Allocation Under New York Law in the Wake of Viking Pump: Hold a Viking Funeral or Pump the Brakes?

This roundtable will examine the observed and anticipated repercussions of the New York Court of Appeals' landmark decision in In re Viking Pump. The roundtable will discuss recent court decisions throughout the country that have grappled with allocation issues of first impression created by the Viking Pump decision.

Speakers: Joshua Bloservern, Hoguet Newman Regal & Kenney LLP, New York, NY, Katherine E. Mast, Nicolaides Fink Thorpe Michaelides Sullivan LLP, Los Angeles, CA

15. D&O Insurance: Pitfalls, Perils and Policy Review

This roundtable will discuss many of the key terms, conditions, exclusions, and features of D&O insurance policies, with a particular focus on the role played by proactive policy review in avoiding traps for the unwary.

Speakers: Peter D. Luneau, Skadden Arps Slate Meagher & Flom LLP, New York, NY, Peter J. Preston, Hinkhouse Williams Walsh LLP, Chicago, IL

16. Insurance Valuation in Mass Tort Alternative Risk Transfers

This discussion will focus on valuing insurance assets in the growing market of mass tort liability acquisitions, with special attention to asbestos and environmental liabilities.

Speakers: Eric M. Falkenberry, DLA Piper LLP, New York, NY, Christopher P. Makuc, Navigant Consulting Inc., Washington, D.C.

17. Building & Maintaining Effective Relationships with In-House Counsel

This roundtable will address tips and strategies for building and maintaining effective and lasting relationships between in-house counsel and outside coverage counsel.

Speakers: Kelly B. Castriotta, Arch Insurance Group, Chicago, IL
Christina A. Culver, Thompson Coe LLP, Houston, TX

18. Risky Business: Why Coverage Counsel Is Necessary in Corporate Transactions

Nearly every corporate merger or acquisition has insurance components that require the advice and assistance of coverage counsel. From change-in-control provisions, to deductibles and retentions, there are several potential traps that, if not resolved during due diligence, could make any business regret its decision to acquire a company or its assets.

Speakers: Jeffrey B. Clancy, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, New York, NY, Jason A. Frye, Neal Gerber & Eisenberg LLP, Chicago, IL

Ground Transportation	Taxi Cabs Taxis are available for approximately $60 to/from airport. (Please note that the wait for a taxi may be extensive based on city demand.)
Activities	The resort offers many activities including: Golf All meeting attendees are welcome to play in our golf tournament on Friday, March 2, 2018 , at the Loews Ventana Canyon championship course. The tournament will be a four-person scramble format with a shotgun start at 2:45 pm. Please sign up when you register for the meeting. The tournament fee is $100 per person, which includes greens fees, cart with Prolink GPS System, and unlimited practice balls. Clubs are available for $35 (includes six golf balls). If desired, the Resort can arrange for your clubs to be delivered to the golf course upon check-in at the Resort. Once you are signed up for the tournament, you will receive an email requesting your playing partner preferences (if you have any), club rental details, etc. Questions about the golf tournament should be directed to John Mumford at jmumford@hdjn.com . Finally, if you are interested in booking tee times of your own, please call (520) 577-4015 at least 30 days in advance. Tennis Tennis round-robin matches will be played on Friday, March 2, 2018 beginning at 2:45 pm. Please sign up when you register for the meeting. There will be a nominal fee depending on the number of participants, which will include a can of balls and a racquet rental, if needed.
