wiley

▼

Adrienne J. Kosak

Special Counsel

—

📞 202.719.7319

✉️ akosak@wiley.law

Adrienne serves as special counsel to Wiley. She represents clients in a variety of intellectual property matters, with a particular focus on trademark enforcement and management. Adrienne has extensive experience in trademark and patent litigation, including claims under the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act and the Hatch-Waxman Act.

Representative Matters

- Works with clients to implement effective intellectual property management and enforcement strategies.
- Assists clients with trademark portfolio management including clearance, prosecution, maintenance, and counseling.
- Represents clients in all phases of intellectual property litigation, from pre-suit investigation through appeal.
- Argues motions and trial briefing before federal district courts and the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Trademark Trial and Appeal Board.
- Assists clients in recovering stolen domain names and curtailing cybersquatting through various means including the Anticybersquatting Consumer Protection Act and Uniform Domain-Name Dispute-Resolution Policy.

Professional Experience

- Legal Intern, Office of the Federal Public Defender (2007)

Practice Areas

—

Cybersquatting & Internet IP
Intellectual Property
Litigation

Credentials

—

Education
J.D., William & Mary Law School
B.S., magna cum laude, The Ohio State University; Phi Beta Kappa

Law Journals
Executive Articles Editor, William and Mary Bill of Rights Journal

Clerkships
Law Clerk for the Honorable Mary Ellen Coster Williams, U.S. Court of Federal Claims (2014-2015)

Bar and Court Memberships
District of Columbia Bar
North Carolina Bar
Virginia Bar
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal and Ninth Circuits
U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and Eastern District of Virginia
U.S. Court of Federal Claims

Recognitions

- Named one of DC's "Rising Stars" for Intellectual Property Litigation by Super Lawyers magazine (2013-2014, 2018-2023)